Capturing your love in the heart of the South.

Hey friend, I'm Juliann!

Born and raised in Mississippi, Southern hospitality runs through my veins! I will show up on your wedding day not only as your photographer but as a loyal friend. I take great joy in capturing the connection and beauty of your wedding day; the process will feel as effortless and comfortable as your love for each other. I can't wait to cheer you on as you begin your marriage journey!

Juliann
